

The panel was delighted to see how Lauren Fetherston brought everybody together in one of our emerging communities. We hope other residents will feel inspired to use their talents to share with neighbours and build a community that cares.

From the nomination:

Lauren started an estate quiz on the first week of lockdown and ran it for sixteen weeks. All residents were invited to participate and it became something to look forward to each Saturday at 9pm.

